MR. H. M. RIDLEY ON THEIR ABOLITION

FBNANG CARDENS.

Mr. H. N. Ridley, Duector of Gardens, contributes to the March number of the Agricultural Bulletin a very interesting atticle on the abolition of the Botanic Gardens of Penang. He writes:

and perhaps in the East changes and disinto a reservoir.

Colonial produce. All this was effected in the first year of his work.

WATERFALL VALLEY.

The ground of the waterfall valley had been a quarry and was covered with laling and huge blocks of stone, giving it a most hopeless appearance and an immense amount of labour was required to get it into the semblance of garden. But Mr. Curtis was a man full of energy and skill as a landscape gardener and was not to be daunted by difficulties. In a surprisingly short time, the laland was exterminated, the stones removed, the stream bridged in several places, plant houses and ponds made, and an extensive collection of rare and beautiful plants

Meanwhile, during his excursion in the largely to the knowledge of the flora of the forests of Panang, the Dinaings, Perak and Lankawi, he collected specimens for the herbarium, and for the Garden, and the great number of plants associated with his name attest to his success in this direction. He possessed indeed the greatest skill not only in discovering but in importing alive and of the Royal Asiatic Society and a Latin-Malay cultivating plants worthy of the admiration of all lovers of nature. A garden for trees was all formed by him at Kubang Ulu in Province Wellesley, chiefly for roadside and forest trees periments and observations on rubber, gutta for planting out in the province, in 1887, and proved very useful for some time, but was a length abandoned.

The experimental nursery towards the top of the Government Hill was intended for attemptples and peaches; lemons and many other trees were planted there, and the last two mentioned produced good fruit. The olives formed large bushy trees, but did not fruit. It was found, however, that this altitude, rather over 2,000 feet, was not high enough for European fruits and this little garden was not kept up beyond 18)8 At the top of the Hill was small garden where flowers and vegetables were cultivated for the use of people occupying the Governor's bungalow, peas, leeks, kohlrabi, new potatoes, carrots, etc., were grown here with great success, although the available space was small and all manure had to be carried up Masseur by hand. Rose, carnations and other European flowers were also cultivated here, and numbers of Burmese orchids were planted on the trees.

PICTURESOUE.

The waterfall gardens soon became the admiration of all visitors to Penang, and Mr. J. H. Veitch, of Messrs, Veitch and Sons, in his Traveller's Nôtes, written in 1896, gives an excellent account of what he saw in his visit there, a description too long to reprint. Axel Preyer, in his Indo-Malayishe Streifzuge, published in 1903, says Der Garten ist zwar nur klein aber gut gehalten und zeigt in seinem Orchideen und Falmen charakterische formen der Malayischen Flora, Auch die Ganz Anlage un Englischen Parkstil gehalten bietet reisvolle

The soil of the gardens was poor and sandy but in spite of such difficulties many fine and rare trees and shrubs were successfully grown while the plant houses, beautifully kept and stocked with, indigenous, and exotic plants, were highly admired. In one spot grew probably the biggest Grammatophyllum speciosum in cultivation anywhere. It measured fortythree feat round, and in the season produced a great abundance of flowers on racemes over seven feet tall.

The situation of the garden, a valley surrounded with magnificent forest-clad hills, and the waterfall and picturesque Indian shrine at the further end produced a series of vistas unequalled by any garden in the East. It was, of course, the greatest, one might may the only. attraction in Fedang to the traveller, and in spite of its distance from the town was visited by hosts of visitors from all parts of the globe. The King of Siam, on his sare visits to Penang, pever failed to drive to the Gardens, and to inspect them under the guidance of Mr. Curtis CONDOLUNCE.

But in about 1900, a scheme for converting them into a reservoir to increase the supply of water to Penang town was talked 12 about, and as from that date it was uncertain whether at any minute the work of destruction would not commence, it was not considered worth while to continue planting out valuable or rare trees to be destroyed immediately. But now, after an uncertainty of ten years, it has been decided that the ground is required for a reservoir, and the abandonment and destruction of this beautiful garden is practically an accomplished fact. We can only condole with Penang on the loss of its only attraction.

As the Gardens are so intimately connected a I with Mr. Cartis it may not be out of place here i to give some account of his history. Mr. Charles Curtis was born in 1854 and was employed at Messrs. Veitch's nurseries at Chelses in 1874. Four years later, he was relected by the firm to go to the East on an important mission in search of plants for cultivation. "His first trip was to Mauritius and Madagascar, whence he sent home the handsome pitcher plant, Nepenthes madagescarionsis, and quantities of the Nothing lasts for very long in this world, beautiful Angrocums of that country. TRIP TO AUSTRALIA.

The excursion has been fixed to leave Manile on Monday, June 13th, taking the following

I .- A visit to Thursday Island at the northern extremity of Australia, the headquarters of the pearling industry. 2.-A call at Townsville, the largest town in Northern Queensland and a run through the placid stretch of water between the Queensland coast and that famous coral strand, the Great Barrier Reef. 3.-A railway journey in fast commodious and comfortable cars, from Brisbane to Sydney and Melbourne traversing 1,300 miles of typical, interesting and diversified scenery, with breaks on the way, as detailed later on. 4.-A sojourn of nearly three weeks in the Eastern States of the Australian Commonwealth, during which period ample opportuni-I ties will be afforded for seeing their industrial activities and scenes of beauty. The comprehensive holiday trip extends over a month and a fare of £100 will be charged to cover the tourist's whole expenses first class, throughout from time of starting, June 13th, 1910, until the fulfilment of the programme on July 13th 1910. Tourists may, at their option, extend their stay for several months, at their own expense, after the set programme has been completed and the return portion of the steamer coupon. ticket will cover the homeward passage, without additional charge. Tourists, wishing to take advantage of the trip en route to the continent or England, can have tickets issued to them in the usual way and allowed credit for the difference between the single and return steamer fares.

While visiting Australia on this trip a devicetion may be made to New Zealand, if desired. The Nippon Yusen Kalsha's steamer Kemano Maru (one of the largest vessels running between Japan and Australia) has been chosen for this tour. She is a fine stamp of mail steamer, quite up to date, with airy, roomy cabins, and everything possible will be done by her officers to make the trip a most pleasant one. The steamer is expected to leave Hong-[39 kong on Friday, June 10th.

Owing to the limited passenger accommod. HEAD OFFICE-No. 83, Des Vonz Road West ation on the Kumano Maru by which steamer tourists will travel, it is urged that borths be secured as soon as possible, as an early application will ensure preference of cabins.

ROSSIAN ALARMISTS.

ALLEGED RECONNOITRING BY JAPANESE DIRICIBLES

Quite a crop of allegations and rumours to carding supposed Japhnese explonage in F sian Far Eastern territory have appeared in Russian contemporaries during the past few mouths. The following communication from Viad voitok to the Ulrennay's Rossigg ! tradelated by the Jopan Chronicle, is an interesting case in point :-

"The commander of the fort here has issued an Ordinance reminding the inhabitants of the laws relating to the population in fortified zines in time of war, and warning them as to the regulations they must submit to in the event of war. The Japanese have begun to carry out all isl reconnoiting in the Usauri district by means of dirigibles, which have been objerved in various places-among others, over the city of Nikolsk-Ussuriisk. The desence of the frontier on our side has been, strengthened. Persons arriving from Shangbai say that everybody there is expecting war to break out at the beginning of spring. The position everywhere in the Far East is alarming in the extreme. In Marchurla, which provides our eternally starving Friamurie with bread, the prices of wheat, barley (used in the .Far East for feeding horses, onts not being cultivated here), and buck-wheat have risen considerably. Steamers with military supplies are expected from Russia."

THE BRIGHT SIDE

of life. It is a feeling common to the majority. of us that we do not get quite the amount of happiness we are entitled to. Among the countless things which tend to make us more or less miscrable ill health takes first place. Hannah More said that sin was generally to be attributed to biliousness. No doubt a crippled liver with the resulting impure blood, is the cause of more mental gloom than any other single thing. And who can reckon up the fearful aggregate of pain, loss and raising from the many aliments and discusses. which are familiar to mankind; like a vast cloud it hangs over a multitude no one can number. You can see these people everywhere. For them life can scarcely be said to have any "bright side" at all. Hence the eagerness with which they search for relief and cure. Remedies like

WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION have not attained their high position in the confidence of the people by bald assertions: and boasting advertisements. They are obliged to win it by doing actually what is claimed for them. That this remedy deserves its reputation is conceded. It is palatable as honey and contains the nutritive and curative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites and the Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry. Nothing has such a record of success in Scrofula, Anemia, Throat and Lung Troubles, and emaciating complaints and disorders, that tend to undermine the foundations of strength and, vigour. Its use helps, to show life's brighter side. Dr. H. L. Reddy, B. A., M. D., L. R. C. S., Edinburg,-L. R. C. P., London,-Physician Woman's Hospital-Professor University of Bishops College, Canada, says : " I have much pleasure in stating that I have used it in cases of debility and have found it to be a very valuable fremedy as well as pleasing to take." HONGKONG, SATURDAY, MARCH 26, 1910.

THE SILVER DUTY,

The gradual recovery in the price of silver after the severe slump last month following increased duty on the white metal by the Indian Government, once again draws attention to the question of exchange which affects all interests alike in the Colony. In Calcutta there was a strong feeling among the Marwari community against the duty and a leading merchant was of opinion that this duty would tell upon the poor people of India as they were the principal buyers. The market would be low on account of th would try to sell with profit. When the stocks was about £150. in India have been decreased there is every chance of the market becoming steady. Those dealers who have sold silver with duty for future delivery will suffer a great deal both in Calcutta and Bombay. Business will remain dull at present until the silver stock decreases. From an Indian contemporary we gather that opinion amongst merchants in Bombay and especially those particularly interested in the bullion market is unanimous in condemning the new tax on silver. The silver market has been much disturbed and it is hardly possible at present to foresee what the effect will be, but European and Indian merchants combine in the opinion that not only is the tax one which will prejudice trade, and one that has been imposed at a most inopportune moment, but that by its failure to give any notice of an impost of retain his rank and wear the uniform of the

has inflicted a severe injustice upon the commercial community generally. As to what Government may find it necessary to do in date of the Financial Statement's introduction | guard stations in the United Kingdom. They

the near future there seems, however, to be some division of opinion. In some quarters i is considered that as Government has accepted the necessity of a standard value of silver and has fixed it at 18, 4d. for the rupee, it will very probably find it needful to increase the import duty next year. More hopeful views, however, obtain elsewhere and amongst other circles it is regarded as possible that Government may reconsider the increase of duty; while, at least, it is thought that any silver which had not been shipped at the will be exempted. The latter, however, wil be only a slight mitigation, and will do little to relieve the anxiety of those interested in the milling interest as to the effect which THE Japanese population in Kwantung district the duty will have upon their trade. 'Depreciation of silver, combined with the high prices of cotton, which at present prevail in local markets, cannot help, it is felt, but materially to reduce profits. At the same time the rates of exchange, with China must be affected and as the latter is the one country in the world where cheap silver is most easily obtainable, Bombay exporters were a point of view, it is stated" that the tax does an injustice to natives of moderate or small means who turn their savings into the medium of silver. What is regarded as the worst feature of the new proposals is the entire lack of notice of them, and especially their retrospective effect. It has been suggested that the validity of the new rate on consignments which had been shipped before Feb. 25th, the Budget day, should be tested by legal proceedings, but such action was not encouraged by the most responsible firms among the Indian trading our contemporary is only surprised that somecommunity. What is regarded as a more reasonable proposal is that to petition Government to nullify the retrospective action of the tax, instancing the case of the Indian Specie Bank, which has been suddenly called upon to pay-about two lakhs of rupees on a consignment which has just arrived. It is also pointed out that if the principle of imposing retrospective taxation is maintained severe dislocation of business will be caused every year as the time for the Budget Statement approaches. As far as the import trade is concerned it will mean an entire withholding of orders during the latter part of lanuary each year, and in this connection, as it synchronises with the advent of the Chinese New Year, another disturbing factor will be introduced into the trade between

GPIUM LICENCES.

Centon, 24th March.

The licences issued to opium smokers have been made of wooden boards measuring 18 by 16 inches each. As these broads could not be concealed in their persons, some of the opium smokers split their licences into two or three pieces, which they putaway to their pockets when proceeding to buy opium. The Government Anti-opium Eureau discovering this clever rase has now given orders to have the opium licences made of tin plate instead of wood for distribution in future. Ninety thousand such tin-plate licences have been ordered by the Anti-optum Bareau from a tiasmith's in the city.

Among the various industries which have articles appearing in the Telegraph, prominence has mostly been given to the most important, and little has been said concerning the multitudinous smaller ones that thrive and flourish ike the green bay tree under the beneficent conditions that are maintained under the aggis of British rule in Hongkong. new industries have come into being with the advent of the British Raj, many of the older The Manager read the notice convening the established businesses that previously had found a home in Canton and the New Torritory have changed their venue to this city.

especially, comparatively vast tracts of virgin land with splendid harbourage facilities have been opened up with excellent results so far as the development of the Colony goes and with no less satisfaction to the traders themselves.

What with the establishment of the Oriental Brewery, the Standard Oil works, the feather factory, and weaving, dyeing, cano-making factories, and the famous Oriente cigar-making place as well as the Steam Laundry and smaller centres of industry, there are numerous lesser concerns that are well worthy of mention in taking a review of the Colony's trade. One of these is the brass workers' business, which finds a suitable locale in Yaumsti. is one of the most thriving trades in the suburl ANOTHER INDUSTRY that in a most inobstructive fashion has made a home for itself in Hongkong in despite of the Colony, is the tin smelting works which have been laid down at Bay View and in th Western district of the City. It certainly does not remain to the Telegraph to minimise or reduce the status of an industrial concern that claims Hongkong as its location, and I the smelcing works occupy a site that, as i were, take up nothing in the way of space which is occupied by the great smelting works of Pulo Brani and Pulo renang-which produce three-fifths of the world's supply of tin-we may take credit as well of supplying our own demand and smelting it ourselves.

18 A TRUISM that all the tin that comes to Hongkong for purely local purposes is shipped here not from Pulo Brani or Penang but from Yunnan and is thence deatt with in our special smelting works. It must be admitted that the smelting methods followed in Hongkong are primitive in the extreme, more primitive even than the practices pursued by the Chinese even in their most primitive ages and more especially alike to the stages of mining development that may be observed on the tin mines of British Malaya at the present day.

Another province that may with all conscience be invaded in a review of the subject i that of racing boat building and motor-launch building. It had been a remarkable fact before that none but British-built motor launches or boats were acceptable to Chines owner and when the demand suddenly increase ed and multiplied the regard for them overstepped the demand.

As a result, quite a number of firms came into existence, and such well-known concerns as Ah King and Messrs. A.F. Ramsey & Co. made rapid headway in the boat-building profession. 'As regards the former he has mostly confined himself to yacht-building-to which profession the growth of the Royal Corinthian Yacht Club has lent itself-but the latter, has done all kinds of work including many examples of motor-boat building, with no little credit to the yard from which they come.

HARBOUR IMPROVEMENT AT SANDAKAN.

CONSTRUCTION OF A MOLE.

Considerable speculation appears to be cur rent as to the rates d'elre of the new mole now being constructed near the mouth of the Sandakan river. We are officially informed that the construction of the mole is the commerce. ment of a scheme to reclaim that part of the foreshore formerly occupied. by Kampong Bharn. When the reclamation is completed considerable area of land will be available for shop lots and an additional road will be made parallel to the Loils Road.

The construction of the mole also provides extremely suitable labour for the gang of bad character prisoners who were formerly working on Barn Hill and who require to be well guard ed and under strict and constant supervision. Incidentally the mole will, we understand, be used for official and ceremonial landings, in order that it will not be necessary for distinguished visitors to pick their way, as is now sometimes macessary, through the crowded Customs House.—B. SOME UNRECORDED STORIES.

Although any incident connected with the recent appearance of the American tourists on these shores to be related now may appear somewhat late in the day, the following stories will be read with interest. It is a solemn fact. that, during their stay here, the Yankees had a decided penchant for United States gold currency. It is related of a certain Ame ican that he approached a money-changer's counter of a hotel and asked for some money to be changed into American currency. After about five minutes! careful calculation, the money-changer passed.

over the desired tokens, with, however, a few. cents in local currency, as he just then happened to tun short of American money. ... Imagina his surprise when the American with a coblness which was well-nigh exasperating handed the money back to the money-changer, accompanied with the remark : "I guess I'll go and have it changed at the Bank." I fancy if the same capricious gentleman were to approach beco even better than they appear. This Chinese small manufacturers sought reluge his poor victim of a money-changer again with a request similar to the last one, he would be given a polite but firm refusal.

> MY OWN EXPERIENCE. But the above story is nothing in comparison with some really startling incidents, which have come to my notice. 'A great number of these incidents should, in the nature of things, naturlly go unrecorded, but those at which I was, personally present or have been related to 'me I gladly offer for the delectation of my readers. On the first day of the American visit to the Colony, I proceeded to Blake Pier bent on investigating. (By the way, it was a good thing that the pier was worthy of the name, as the whilem thatched affair of bye-gone days would have elicited remarks from the visitors hardly complimentary to the Colony.) I did not have long to wait for something out of the extraordinary, for suddenly a cortain party entered a ricksha and instructed John to drive to "Kingsclere," Of course, John as usual assumed an intelligent expression and with a cry of "Savee" given in his own weird way he was about to rush off. As likely, as not he would have made a circuit of the city and, after having wasted a good amount of time, would have blandly demanded his fare and flatly refused to proceed further. Always baving been possessed of a magnanimous nature, and not wishing the ignorant one to be put to any unnecessary inconvenience, I went up to him and said: You generally proceed to "Kingsclere" by chair. I think you better take one." . Whereupon the Yankee turned round and gave me a stony stare which, I must admit, almost freezed me. The next moment, he asked: "Are you" one of the guides? I've been looking for one all the evening." "No," I replied, "I'm not one of the guides. I merely wished to assist you in finding your destination." Without thanking me, the Yankee ensconced himself. in a chair and the next moment I was left alone. My feelings can be better imagined than described. I at the time indulged in a mild philosophy on the subject of the inherent capacity of the average American to take a person by storm, as it were. I would advise my readers to think twice before trying to do a good turn to a stranger, no matter who he is. without having previously been invited to do so,

ANOTHER INCIDENT. Which reminds me of another little incident which is too good to pass uppoticed. An "Ummurncan " walked into the local Detective Bureau after having probably mistaken his destination, and almost the first thing he did was to strike against one of the 'tecs. Like a holt from the blue came the American's calm question: "Say, do you speak English?" When I teil you, gentle reader, toat there was not an inkling of other than pure English blood in the 'tec's veins, you will not be susprised to hear that the latter did not wait to reply but with unruffled dispity left the questioner in an udenlightened

WHY SANDY LIKED THE BAGPIPE. The other day a tresh arrival in the Colony from the old country took it into his head to discuss with me the fascinating subject of St. Andrew's Ball, the fame of that interesting annual function having preceded his visit to the Colony. As the guillin persisted in a falso no. tion that the function must occessarily be of a purely Scottish Character, his face was a study when I quickly disillusioned him by saying that an Indian piper supplied the music at the 1908 Ball! Whereupon the party referred to said that it reminded him of the Scotchman who was always telling his friends that he had a profound harred for music of every description. One day, Sandy incidentally mentioned to one of his acquaintances that he loved the sound of the bag-pipe. "But you've always told me that you, based music?" urged his friend, "Aye, aye, mon," replied Sandy, "that's the vairy reason why I like it. The bag-pips is not music." I know several people who tiold the same opinion.

This fact clicited the remark' from the owner that the washable material could with little trouble undergo periodical ablutions, but I was at the same time impressed with the fact that the material was as easily liable to ignition.

"THE HOMEWARD BOUNDER!

HUMOURS OF THE MAIL BOAT. (Specially Written for the "Hongkong" Telegraph!")

Just at this season of the year, when the hot weather is sending out certain warnings that it will soon be upon us, there begins the annual exodus of those fortunate persons who have become entitled to a holiday in Europe after such and such a number of years' service in the encivating. East. Already we have seen many such departures recorded in the Telegraph, and many more are imminent. Of course, there is no need to explain that the Hongkoog resident who-happy man i-becomes entitled to his leave on full pay or half pay as the case may "case, takes care to get away from the Colony before our trying summer miskes its advent, so as to avoid that and at the same time get the benefit of the mild season at Hame, for when be first arrives in the old country after a long sojourn in the East he would cut a sorry figure if he had first of all to be called upon to face the rigours of the bitter months.

As one who has seen many "send-offs" from Hongkong, the writer has had the chance of witnessing both sides of the picture, as well as the various migor circumstances i which yet are never the same in any two cases, As a general rule, the "homeward bounder" is followed to the ship by his friends and fellows: workers and sent off with a bristerous farewell. At one time in Hongkong, their was hardly ever a departure of a Scotsmin or a group of tioned to skirl out parting good wishes, but this practice has fallen into disuse generally and may only now be observed when, say, a bunch of Scots police are going off on leave

GRAVE AND GAY

Many, a time, the writer, has beard the mail bost smoking from resound to the designing point with the shrick of the pipes and the rolling out from vociferous throats the timebonoured songs of the country, ending up of cruss with "Auld Lang Syne." Needless to say these partings were not effected without a conlinerable consumption of whisky and other stimulants, for it is little use for a Scotsman'to try to take leave of a departing friend

A SLOCKENER.

But although, the Scots appear to be the most fervid and enthusiastic in their fashion of taking leave of the "homeward bounder," they do not by any means absorb all the peculiarities of farewell greatings.

When the Chinese want to show in no unmistakable manner the heartiness of their good wishes for some departing. European the cricker is brought into play. Long strings of these noisy instruments of greeting are bung at the office door or at the gate of the business place which has been the scene of his labour, and the departing party has to run the gauntlet of these demonstrative ebullitions of good, will before he is able to reach the wharf where his launch awaits to take him off to the steamer.

Nordoes this friendly demonstration and here for in the case of a popular man, his admirers will sometimes fullow the steamer down the harbour for a couple of miles or so in launches firing more fusilades of crackers, with a powerful bomb at the end of the last one as a grand finale. One well-known Hongkong man who was modest and particularly dreaded crackers, doce escaped the ordeal by making his exit through a back door leading into an ob cure alley while the workmen, were crowded round the front entrance all prepared to begin the game whenever he should make his appearance. But it was no use. They followed him out to the ship in a launch and gave him the full benefit at close qua ters. This mention of MODEST MUN recalls to one's mind that there are many "homeward bounders" who simply detest noisy farewells but prefer to slip on board unietly and without display. One such youthwho was as bashful as any girl-was so apxious to prevent being made conspicuous on the ship gave his well-wishers the slip and when he arrived on board locked himself in the cabin with the intention of emerging only at the last moment so that in the hurry of departure the farewells would have to be short. But such a pandemonium did his office companions and other friends create outside the locked door that the steward; was forced to intervene and the culprit was haled away to the smoking room, where he had to listen to his health being proposed and to "I e's a Jolly Good Fellow," ti ree times repeated, On the other hand, there are many men who bear off these bonouis without a blush when they leave for bonie, and those have the best time of it. There is, after all, a kind of

MIXED FEELING in the send-off which is generally accorded the "bomeward bounder," for there can be no doubt that most of us have to plead goilty to a certain amount of envy of the lucky man who is going away on leave, or to retire after he has "made his pile" in the East. But it would be more than human to expect saything else on the part at any rate of those

Bess fortunate. It is, however, one of the most pleasurable features of living in the East that on the occasion of the departure of a man whether on short leave or for good altogether, his friends unfailing. lly gather round him to wish him "Godspeed." and take other means to make him feel that. after all, life out here is not altogether so sordld and dollar-hunting a thing as it is sometimes represented to be... No "homeward bounder" departs from Hongkong without leaving a vacany somewhere or other; and even although he may have been only a short-service to when he left the shores of this island of frace certain late Governor of Hongkong, who ANNUAL REPORT. was just leaving the Colony as a "homeward bounder." As the departure of a Governor always does. His Excellency's going away was celebrated by many functions of a social kind which necessitated a great deal of hand-shaking. As anyone who has bad to go through the experience of shaking hands with innumerable people on the one day will tell you, it is a most trying ordes! and the right arm may be stiff and sore for a week.

But His Excellency was not taking any risks: When he appeared on the Pier prior to going on board and hundreds upon hundreds of his faithful constituents were assembled for a final handshake, it was seen that H.E. was wearing his right arm in a silken sling. In consequence the left hand had to be used. As is very well known, no pressure can be employed in shaking a man's left hand with your own right, and as a result the Governor got through the duty without getting his fingers crushed or his arm. It was with a humorous twinkle in his eye that he informed an inquiring pressman on board the signmer afterwards that there was not very

THE OPIUM HABIT.

FROM AN INTELLIGENT VIEWPOINT.

"Dixon," a writer in an Indian contemporary, has the following to say on the subject of the opium habit:--It will serve no practical purpose to inquire it the effect of opium on the national character and constitution of the Chinese has been so pernicious as it has been represented to be, on an extravagant presentment of a few extreme cases. In spite of opium, the thinese are a well-built race, unsurpassed in industry and application. They are certainly not inferior in health or physique to any other Asiatic nation that is innocent of the fascination of the narcotic. I do not know, if taken immoderately, opium works greater havoc than alcohol. There are habitual drunkards as there are excessive opium-caters, and yet the traffic in alcoholic drinks is not stopped altogether on that account. De Quincey cannot, perhaps, be cited as an impartial witness. But his opinion is valuable as derived from lifelong personal experience, and in one of the finest passages in his "Confessions" he sets forth the advantages of opium against wine, and says that no man "having once tasted the divine luxuries of opium, will afterwards descend to the gross and mortal enjoyments of alcohol." I am not an opium-eater myself, and it may be a heresy to say anything in defence of a drug which it is a sign of respectability to condomn, but I cannot bring myself to agree to a pious conformity, simply because it is considered decent by the world to be mixed up with the herd, rather than be marked out as singular. If sentimentalism had not come into play, India should not have lost the revious from opium. Many years ago. I happened to visit the opium dens of Bombay; the inmates were enjoying their pipe, resting on pittows in perfect peace and harmony, and as far as I can remember, I did not notice among them a single person half so ill-looking as the miserable wrecks depic ed for the public behoof by the abolitionists. About wenty years ago, the whole question was thoroughly sifted by a commission appointed by Government, and the weight of evidence was most cecidedly in layour of the view that opium, in certaio circumstances, was be efficial, and that it was by no means the evil it had been represented to be. But I am quite out of date in dealing with this aspect of the question. It is a fact quite as settled as the partition of Bengal, that the opium traffic shall cease altogether in ten years, and that the Government must find their own ways and means to supplement the loss. There will always be a difference of opinion as to the exact benefit to be derived by the Chinese in consequence of this pious 'sesolve of the British Government. Great Britain has all the credit of a deed which will not cost her a penny. The enormous sacrifice it will involve must be borne by India alone, and the merit of it is enhanced by the fact that India is a very poor country and its ordinary resources cannot keep pace with its growing exponditure. The Finance Minister is himself much disconcerted by this circumstance, and is almost spologetic in the proposals he has submitted to the Viceroy's Council for fresh taxation. "This is not, a rich country," he said. "A large proportion of its people are poor, an appreciable proportion are very poor. No right-minded man can impose additional taxation on India with a light heart. To me, it is a very genuine sorrow to be obliged to do so." This is a fact

NOTICE 10 MARINERS.

CAUTION WHEN APPROACHING BRITISH

The following Notice has been issued by the British Admiralty to vessels approaching British ports. Lest it may be regarded as of analarmist nature, indicating expectation of an outbreak of hostilities, we may say that a very similar notice was published by the" British Admiralty at the beginning of last year, and it seems to be intended to republish the notification annually, in order that mariners may not be under any misapprehension as to what should be done in the circumstances mentioned. The notification, which includes Hongkong and Singapore, Aden, Bombay, Calcutta, Colombo, Karachi, Mauritius, Rangoon, as well as the principal ports in the Colonies and the United Kingdom, runs as

(1) My Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, having taken into consideration the fact that circumstances may arise in which it may be necessary, on account of periodical exercises; managuvres, or otherwise, to forbid all entrance to the Naval Ports at night, this is to give Notice that on approaching the shores of Great Britain, or any port of the Brittsh Empire, if search lights are observed to be in constant operation, the Naval Ports should be approached with great caution, as it may be apprehend? ed that obstructions may exist outside, or that the entrances may be altogether of sed.

(2) If an entrance to a port is closed, three red vertical lights will be exhibited in some conspicuous position, in or near to, its approuch, and as far as possible notice of this fact will be given by lookout vessels in the offing,

In this case vessels must either proceed to the position marked "Examination Anchorage" on the Admiralty charts and anchor there, or keep the sea.

MILITARY CONTRIBUTION.

(19th March.) at Singapore, on the 11th inst., there was with clock-like regularity the Convent appears laid on the table a despatch from the before the public about the end of each year the question of the Military Contribution when the ladies of the Hongkong elite so in the Eastern Colonies. The paragraph in I generously devote their time and loosen this connection reads:--" I have to inform I their purse-strings in aid of the funds of one you that, in view of the loss caused to the of the most deserving institutions working Colony by the diminution of the revenue for the benefit of the Chinese in Hongkong.

These questions are at present under the consideration of the Treasury, but I trust that before long I may be able to communicate their Lordships' reply to you." 'This is a question in which Hongkong is vitally affected and which, it may be remembered, was referred to in one of Sir Frederick Lugard's public statements to the Council last year. In nothing the despatch as affecting Singapore, the Free Press of the Southern colony, which has upheld the interests of the taxpayers throughout the long period of this vexed controversy, writes editorially in part as follows:-"Especially will this inquiry affect the cases of this Colony and Hongkong. because in these two Colonies the interference of the Home Government with the the Straits Settlements to roughly half the entire revenue, is bound to entail on the figures of these Colonies an extreme disorganisation, and possibly a risk of additional taxation that may even imperil the free port status of the Colony. If the Home Government wants the luxury of indulging in the vice of gratifying its sense of so-called virtue at the expense of other people, it should pay for that vice just as other people do who care to indulge assert that there is far more real virtue in the Chinaman who takes his limited alleviation in the form of the very small indulgence in opium he can pay for, then in the soi disant virtue which delights in the coercion of free men of a different race in far away communilimits of the law under which they live. I would be preposterous to ask the Chinupon these Chinese in a matter of a personal habit, on which there is general agreement that in moderation it is endangered. It is simply another illustration of might being right. If this Colony were

be devised to meet the needs of the situation

(24th March.) tary of State has said once again that the of a few days. Imperial Government is to compensate us for the loss of the opium trade. Not the opium trade in its entirety-be it remembered-but the loss sustained through the obliteration of divens. Many questions have been asked over this matter and it cannot be defied that we come to the subject with a prejudiced mind. Because, again, the old war-cry crops up-"We want your money." In this Colony of Hongkong we "warstle" through, but always with a view to final satisfaction. Now we have the news which is to put all of us in grand temper and to confute the absurd incendiaries who would blow up the world in the vain attempt to prove that the Government in power is without good. The tale is told in the Singapore papers, how the Earl of Crewe, back again at his old duties. wrote to the effect that our "substantial contribution" would be assured and that the question of the military contribution would be considered. Hopeful news is always good, and we trust that it may materialise in the doubt it. This Colony is far removed from the centre of attraction, is just as liable to be forgotten as those other places in the Empire of which Sir Frederick Lugard can speak with authority. To deal first with Earl Crewe's statement regarding the opium question we may be allowed to quote anew part of the letter which he has sent in his official. of the Straits. He says and it must be with the connivance and knowledge of his hat every effort has been made to ke down expenditure, and I think the colony is to be congratulated on the fact that, with a met by income. In this connection I have to inform you that, in view of the loss caused to the colony by the diminution of the revenue from opium. I am in communication with the Lords Commissioners of the Treasurv with a view to the grant, if possible, of some assistance from Imperial funds," We like the words "some assistance," but we must tie him down to the better words "substantial contribution." Not that we want any grant-in-aid in the sense that we are povertystricken; all we want are our dues and the fulfilment of the promises made. Lord Crewe says again—and judging, from the tone of the despatch he probably dictated it himself-"I have also informed their lordships that in my opinion the time has now come when the arrangements with regard to the military contribution should be reconsidered, and I have invited them to agree to the appointment of a committee, composed of representatives of the colonial office, the treasury and the war office to consider de novo the whole question of the contributions paid by the Eastern colonies. These questions are at present under the consideration of the treasury, but I trust that before long may be able to communicate their lordships' That question about the military contribution has always been a "burning" one, and the idea that it is to be settled is "not bad." The fact remains that the home Government recognises that patience is a virtue which Hongkong as a member of the Empire, and Singapore which stands in the same relation. cannot exercise for ever.

'During the summer of 1000 as you are probably aware Free Trade was established between the Philippines and the United States, and at one time we hoped that this might lead to an opening for our sugars in America; at present, however, it does not seem possible to lay them down in that country at a price which will compete with the local refineries and it appears that we shall still have to look to the Philippines only for our market, though "under" improved conditions. ANNUAL "MEETING.

The thirtieth appoint general meeting of shareholders in the above company was held at Shangbai, on 18th jost. Mr. A. McLeod presided, and there were also present Mesers. L. Cubitt. W. D. Little, and A. Hide (directors). A. P. Wood (Engineer), G. Galles, J. M. Young, 31. Hapbury, F. H. Pipcairo, C. H. Ford, J. N. representing 5,823 shares.

The Chairman said that as there was a quorum present, and it being past the hour er. E. Aniricio, F. P. de V. Soares, E. The Chairman then addressed the meeting as follows:

The report and accounts for the past year having been in your hands for some days. would suggest with your permission that they be taken as read. With regard to the accounts I think you will agree with the directors that they exhibit a very satisfactory result for the year's operation, but before, however, proposing a resolution asking you to pass them, it may interest you if I make a few remarks regarding the figures now submitted, and the general working of the company for 1909. If you look at the working account, you will find that the total income for the year has amounted to Tis. 569,699.44, as against Tis. 510,321.77 the previous year, showing an in crease of Tis. 59,377.67. In this total is included the receipts from the lintercalary moon, estimated at about Tis. 17,000.00, but after taking this into account, I think, gentlement you will admit there is a satisfactory advance in the company's business. It is gratifying to note this very considerable increase in revenue has been obtained at a very small addition in the expenditure, the principal item being fuel, which has cost the company about Tis. 5,000 more than in 1908, owing to a higher price baving to be paid, also an extra quantity required to pump the very considerably larger quantity of water supplied. Although the quantity of fuel has increased I am sure you will be glad to know the actual consumption per million gallong of water pumped shows a small shving on the previous year's working. The contract for the present year has been made upon favourable terms, with the Chinese Engineering and Jining Con Ltd., which will result in a versubstantial saving in the cost for the year's consumption. Under salaries and wages there is an increase of about Tis. 5,000.00, but in this is included a gratuity of Tis. 1,000 to Mr. Main. the shipping superintendent, upon leaving the company's employ last spring. 'I don't think there is any other item in the expenditure calling for special mestion or explanation. The result of the entire year's, working is that we have a balance at credit of working account of "Tis. 403,123.60, as against Tis. 353,255,:5 las year, or an increase of Tis. 49,657.65. Referring to the profit and loss a/c., it will be seen there is a credit balance of Tls. 250,371.73 available for distribution to the shareholders, and we have before arriving at these figures paid no interim dividend of Tis. 106. 054.08, interest u/c. Tis. 250,371.73 Litrust, gentlemen, you will think the above a autisfactory result of the past year's operation. As mentioned in the last report, the scheme proposed to repay the holders of the previous usue of debentures, covering a period from 1894 to 1905 amounting to Tis. 750,000.00 was completed on the 30th June last and with very lew exceptions, all the old holders transferred their interests to the new issue. The present authorized debenture issue is for Tis 1,500,000 first mortgage on the company's property bearing interest at 6%, of which sum up to the present, Tis. 815,900,00 are alietted, leaving the balance Tis, 684,100,000 available for the purpose of defraying the cost of future extensions. With the above exception I don't think there is very much to remark upon in the balance

It was hardly necessary for him to add anything to what the Chairman had said. TITES. -

Once again a correspondent who has resided. for many years in the East writes to us to suggest that something should be done to check the growing evil of "tipping" on the mail steamers which run between Europe and the Far East. He states that when he last went Home by the P. & O., travelling only with his wife, the had to give gratuities amounting in all to no less than £8 and, he adds, "I couldn't with decency have got out of it for less." When he returned, he travelled by the German mail and discovered that although the scale of "tipe" ran just as high, the number of persons who expected to receive them, was considerably larger. The reform he recommends is the adoption of the system in vogue on the steamers of the Messageries Maritime where, towards the end of the voyage, th maitre d'hotel brings round a book in which each passenger puts down a subscriptionour correspondent affirms that it rarely exceeds twenty france-and the total is divided up among all the stewards pro rata.

There is much in what our correspondent

advances, and the subject is certainly topical at the present moment when the "appual hegira" (the flight of the profit-takers) is just beginning. Passengers who travel Home from the Far East and change to the mail steame at Colombo are usually mulcted rather more beavily than those who proceed direct, but the fact remains that the amount which the first-class passenger has to pay for ordinary attendance for three or four weeks is rarely less than £5 and this is certainly excessive. Of course, the remedy in the long run lies with passengers themselves, but in these days when the standard in such matters is set the American millionaire and the Habrew-Anglo-German company-promoter, it is very hard to effect a reduction. At Home and on the Continent, as we noticed when we were last in Europe, the nuisance is daily growing more intolerable; it has invaded the country house and many a man finds a week's shooting in Scotland more expensive than a fortnight at Monte Carlo. The old-fashioned English "milrod" who did the grand tour in his caleche was usually liberal towards servants, but he never "tipped" to the same ridiculous extent as the nouveau riche of to-day whose huge gratuities are the outcome, not of generosity, but of vulgar ostentation and love of display. Gradually, we may hope, it will come to be regarded as "bad form" to "tip" to excess, as it is cortainly unfair to one's less wealthy fellows, and "tipping," will once more find a proper and normal level. In regard to the lines of passenger steamers which have not yet removed the ten per cent surtax on faires, in spite of the fall in the price of coal, the traveller may reasonably assume that the great companies like the P. & O. the Orient Line, and the North German Lloyd, pay their stewards a fair living wage for their MR. W. I. Calhoun, the recently appointed services and in that case the present rate of "tipping" is ridiculously high. . If, on the other hand, these men are expected to live on what they receive from passengers, it is high time H.E. Tieh Liang's resignation has been acthat a system derogatory to the Companies' | cepted. H. E. Yih Chang, Minister at Berlin, dignity, degrading to their servants, and vexations to their patrons, was abolished, for the passage rates are high enough in all conscience

THE MALAY "ANTI-OPIUM PLANT."

A little more than two years ago, we published a short account of the Malayan plant. Combretum Supdaicum, which was being put forward as a cure for the opium habit. Inquiries which continue to reach us with regard to this drug indicate that up to the present its reputed virtues have not been definitely established nor, on the other hand, has it been fully proved that the cures attributed to i elther did not occur or were due to some other cause. In these circumstances it may be useful to summarize the small amount of addi tional information with regard to it which has been made available since the previous note was published. The use of the drug originated in the province of Selangor, Federated Malay States, where the plant grows freely; the leaves and twigs are prepared for use by roasting on an iron plate over a charcoal fire. In a pape published in the Pharmaceutical Journal for January 18th, 1908, an account is given of preliminary investigation of the fresh and roasted drug by Mr. E. E. Harrison, who found both to contain a resin or resins, tannin. and phiobaphone (a derivative of tannin); alkaloids were proved to be absent, and no appreciable amount of any glucoside was found though slights indications were obtained of the presence of a glucosidal substance in very smal quantity. A decoction of the drug, prepared in the manner recommended in Selangor, contained only traces of the resin, as was to be expected, and its principal constituent appears to have been tannin. Any medicinal virtue actually possessed by the drug must, of course, be ascribed to constituents soluble in water, and therefore extracted in making the decoction; the tanning of different drugs, while possessing in common an astringent character, frequently have distinctive individual properties, and it appears not impossible that bodies of this nature might be of use in mitigating the unpleasant temporary effects resulting from deprivation of opium after its use had become a habit. In an official report on the general situation in Chioa in regard to opium by Sir Alexander Hosie, published last year, a short reference occurs to the use of this drug in breaking off the opium habit, and mention is made of a statement of an English missionary that he had employed it in about to cases, and in every case it had been successful in promoting a cure, but no medical evidence as to its usefulness is cited. On the other hand, a commission appointed to inquire into wars relating to the use of opium in the Malay State, oblained a good deal of evidence with regard to the uso of Combretum; and while the opinion of the lay witnesses was divided, the medical evidence was not favourable to the drug. This evidence included that of Dr. D. K. McDowell, C.M.G., Principal Civil Medical Officer in the Straits Settlements," Mr. M. J. Wright, State Surgeon at Perak, and several native practitioners. Combretum was stated to be of no more use as a cure than ordinary Indian tea though its astringent constituents were said to have the property of stopping the diarrhoes which otherwise often followed the withdrawal of oplum. It cannot be doubted that if the treated to the edifying sight of side-channels drug possessed anything like the specific pro- lined with expectoration. It is to be devoutly hoped that within the walls of the University when completed will be found men in the making and that it will not merely be a machinery for the cramming of useless knowledge. This is my sincerest desire but whether I that desire will be fulfilled time alone can tell.

A QUESTION OF CEILINGS. What is this talk of tearing away the ceilings and stair-linings of Chinese tenements? A the last meeting of the Sanitary Board Mr. Shelton Hooper strongly objected to anything which provided for making bouses rate proof and any attempt to conditionally term certain houses "unfit for human habitation. It seems to me that if all the Chinese houses which do not conform to the rules laid down by the Sanitary Department were to be called "tunfit for human habitation," they would provide accommodation for all the pigs in the Colony with from to source for as many more have not arrived at this statistical feat in a haphazard sort of manner, as you are doubtless beginning to imagine, but I was able to master the difficulty after having given the question very careful consideration and after having bisected and trisected the official turn of-mind over and over again. It is difficult to imaging that in a matter where the convenience of bundreds of Chinese is concerned, and that's saying a great deal, the Sanitary Department should give expression to such a drastic proposal, providing as it does for the removal of part and parcel of every well-regulated tenement. They say that an Englishman's home is his castle, but what about a Chinaman? Why should not the dictum apply to him with equal if not greater force? I wonder on what bare-brained project the Sanitary Department will launch out next? May be they will recommand the whole calling to be done away with in order to ensure the total disappearance of the rodents. I guess it would then be the fashion to while away the tedious hours when the typhoon season is upon as by writing epics. at a moment when the fury of the storm is at its zenith and creating lyrics on the subject of the beautiful capopy above hidden by a Hongkong mist. THE SPITTING NUISANCE.

Some time ago, as the result of the campaign started by the Sanitary Department in the cause of cleanliness, the Police authorities suddenly became imbued with a consuming desire to maintain the premises of the local Police Courts in a fit sanitary state. For this purpose they caused to be placed in the verandahs outside the Court-rooms, where all manner of people are wont to congregate every day, a number of cuspidors with a notice that those who desired to get rid of their phlegm should refrain from expectorating on the flagstone and kindly deposit the superfluous matter in the receptacle provided for the purpose. To provide against possible contingencies, the spittoons were actually fixed to the walls. This wholesome innovation was highly admired at the time it was introduced but a change has come over the authorities. The spitting crusade seems to have died a natural death. (Sanitary Board please note,) Such a thing as a spittoon is now as extinct at the dodo and visitors to the Magistracy are

THE AMERICAN TOURISTS. The appearance of a goodly number of Americans in our midst these last three days imparted a decided fillip to the justified by the appearance on the market of an Latmosphere of Queen's Road. The true American is nothing if not unconventional and it was scarcely remarkable to see some of the elderly dames ensconced on various projections from the walls of buildings to allow them to snatch a breath after landing from the ship. Such blissful disregard of the dictates of rigid convention is indeed refreshing to behold. On the occasion of the visit of the last party of tourists, the sanguine expectations of local shop-keepers to realise a modest fortune sustained a rude shock when they made the discovery that the general inclination of the alleged curio-hunters was in the direction of turning the establishments almost inside out and then departing with an insignificant purchase. Doubtless the shop-keepers must have thought their visitors were regular curios themselves. I wonder if John's unenviable experiences have been repeated this time? I am given to understand that the visitors who departed yesterday were a better crowd than the last batch from the point of view of shop-keepers. as judge from the remark one of them made to me: "This time blong more better." However, I hands since 2nd instant, and you will have seen from them that although our profit in working is slightly larger than that for 1900, we have had to reduce the dividend to seventy-five cents per share on account of various special charges and losses which it is reasonable to suppose will not occur again. The first is a loss of $18,146 on the concrete block and pipe business. We went into this in this hope of filling portion of our property at North Point, but a demand for concrete work in place of wood which perishes so quickly out here from the effects of climate and the attacks of white ants, further portions, we have not so far been able I but although we undertook the work at prices which we knew would leave us no profit, con tinue to be heavily handicapped by Crown rent. The third and last exceptional item is $15,638 expenses incurred in obtaining the concession to quarry limestone near Haiphong, principally the salary and expenses of the special agent we sent down for the purpose and legal and other charges. In addition to these items we are able to write off about $18,000 more for depreciation than we did the previous year, and until we get our overdraft at the Bank reduced we must continue to put aside as much as we can in this way. Interest paid $10.040 is a heavy charge too against our profits, but by reducing our debts we shall also reduce this figure and climinate it altogether in time. Taking all this into consideration think we are quite justified in anticipating that our next profit and loss account will show t larger balance for appropriation as I see no tosson to suppose that our sales will show any falling off, quite the contrary. Looking at the balance sheet you will notice that our expenditure under various beadings on capital ac count was much less than before and, I am gladto say, is now at an end as we do not contemthis afternoon, for the purpose of confirming plate any further additions to plant and machicertain resolutions which were passed at the nery or buildings which form a very complete house he has remained ever since, and thanks and modern factory as they stand. AN APPRECIATION.

At five o'clock this evening when the luners of Mr. James McKie takes place, a thoroughly good and representative citizen of Shanghai will be laid away to rest, says the Shanghai Times of 15th inst. He will be buried in the Old Cemetery at Pabsieniao, near many of the friends and associates of his earlier days in at $335. in these Settlements—among them the late Mr. John Macgregor, at one time his honoured chief in Ewo. He had been ailing since the middle of January and although it was known from the beginning that his illness (an affection of the liver) was one of the most serious character, his friends did not abandon hope until the last and their confidence in the constitutional strength and vitality of the patient seemed to be justified by the endurance which he displayed throughout his sufferings. A weaker man would have succumbed long ago But prolonged though the struggle was, it was not destined to be successful, and death took place at the General Hospital at twenty minutes past six O'Clock yesterday morning to the profound and abiding sorrow of the entire community. The only consolation which Mr. McKie's friends can find in the sad event is the knowledge that the end, when it came, at Tls. 82. Kowloon Wharls have also weakwas practically painless. ..

The whole town was plunged in genuine sorrow yesterday when the doleful news be came known. The flags of the Shanghai Club. the Country Club, the Race Club, the Cricket, Rowing and Recreation Clubs, and all the other Clubs of which Mr. McKie was a member, were lowered to half-mast, and the same mark of mourning was exhibited on all the steamers of the Indo-China Fleet in port. At the annual general meeting of the Shanghai, Chamber of Commerce yesterday the following reference was made to the sad occurrence. After the reading of the notice convening the meeting, the Chairman, Mr. W

D. Little, said: "Gentlemen: Before proceeding with the business of the meeting I would venture to refer to the deals of Mr. McKie, which occurred this morning. Mr. McKie has not been a member of our committee, but his firm has always been a very active supporter of the Chamber. Mr. James McKie, both in his commercial and socia

He was born on June 30, 1850, at Erskine, Reofrewshire, a village in which his father was a Minister of the Church of Scutland. Here he remained until he was of enough to be placed in a bigger school than the village afforded, when he was sent to Hogland and enrolled as a pupil of the Manchester Grammar School, an ancient foundation and one of the best known in the United Kingdom. Having here received thoroughly sound and liberal education, M. McKin turned his attention to commerce, and having learned the piece-goods business in all its branches he secured an appointment in the firm of Messrs, Jardine, Matheson and Co., in whose service he came to Shanghai rather more than thirty years ago. FREIGHT MARKET.

Messrs. Lamke and Rogge write in their reight circular of 19th inst :- The general tone of the freight market, especially in the South, is a decidedly batter one, a fair amount of business in the way of time-chartering has been done during the interval under review, and at the close a scarcity of tonnage is making itself felt. Several good paying freights are left untouched yet there being no steady demand for any particular trade, rates of freight in some directions are being prevented from advancing to a fair level.

ANNUAL MEETING

The annual general meeting of shareholders in the above named company was held at' the office of the general sgents, Messrs, Jardine Matheson and Co., at Shanghai, on 15th inst., Mr. David Landals presiding. There were also present Messrs, A. MacLeod, C. "Wrightson and H. A. J. Macray (directors) . M. Young, Barnes Moss, C. Barff, St. Oroix and Duncan Glass.

The Secretary read the notice convening the meeting. THE LATE MR. NCKIE.

Before proceeding to address the sharehold ers on the report and accounts the Chairman made the following reference to the death of Mr. James McKie :-Gentlemen :- Before commencing the business of this meeting I feel 'I must refer to the loss which your General Agents, and indirectly also this company have sustained by the death yesterday morning of Mr. James McKie. H business capacity and good fellowship were too well known in Shanghai for it to benecessary for me to say more than that I am sure that am voicing the sentiments of many of you saying that we deplore the loss of a friend, whose place it will be hard to fill, Proceeding, the Chairman said :- The report and accounts have been in your hands for some days and with your permission we will take them as read. I am sorry to say the year's working shows a further falling off in our earnings which is due to the dull state, and consequent greatly reduced volume of the import trade during 1909. Four years ago your Chairman pointed that we had been turning away cargo, and that increased godown accommodation was pecessary, and this has since been provided. There has been however no repetition of the convested state of the Import Trade, and the reduced quantity of goods coming forward has gone more rapidly into consumption. Com petition has also increased not only from privately owned godown, a form of investment which must have been a disappointment to many. Although we have not yet been able to reap the full advastage of our increased godown accommodation, we have the satisfaction of knowing that we are now in a better position to handle a fair share of the trade of the port than we have ever been before. Turning to the accounts the working account shows a credit balance of Tls. 375,000 which gives us a credit balance of Tls. 281,221.83 in profit and loss a/c. To pay a dividend of ... $ 41,600.00 We have already paid an interim dividend of Tls, 3 per share which leaves us with a balance of Tis. 17 1,221.83 to deal with, and your directors, recommend that a final dividend of Tls. 4 per share be paid, Tis. 20,000 be placed to repairs a/c, and Tls. 9,221.83 carried forward Last year our repairs cost us Tis. 42,826.70 which leaves us with a balance of Tis. 7.173.30 at credit of repairs account, by adding Tls. 20.000 referred to above. Your directors and general agents are of opinion that a sufficient sum will thus be provided to meet any expenditura that is likely to be necessary this year. I am glad to be able to tell you' that generally" speaking your wharves and godowns are in excellent condition, though it must not be forgotten that a wooden wharl is not a very permanent structure and requires to be constantly renewed. During the year we have paid sheaks on the entire frontage of your property on the Shanghai side of the river and now hold title deeds out to the Conservancy Normal Line. Before I sit down there is one matter I must touch upon and that is to express the regret of your directors and 'general agents at the retirement of our superintendent, Mr. Duncan Glass. It is over forty years ago that Mr. Glass joined the office of your general agents and for the past fifteen years he has filled the post of superintendent of this company's property. He has ever been hard working and zealous in the interests of those he served and

If any shareholder has any questions

The Chairman-I think it is the view of the directors that, so long as the company can pay seven per cent, we should not call upon the equalisation of dividend fund. Mr. Barff-During the last ten years you have paid an average dividend of 15 1-2 per cent and last year to per cent. Now we have had a bad year and I thought the directors might possibly sea their way to encroach upon that fund. Is it that the prospects are not so good? In'1906 and 1907 you paid us 18 per cent, and now 7 per cent. I thought the directors might have encroached on the fund, unless of course the prospects are not quite so bright as they were.

The Chairman-The prospects depend upon the quantity of cargo that comes to Shanghai for us to handle. The feeling of your directors in recommending this distribution of profit was that if the company could pay 7 per cent. we should not encroach on the equalisation of dividend fund.

Mr. Barff-How do you compare this year with last year? Are the prospects any worse? The Chairman-I don't think they are any

There being no further questions the following resolutions were unanimously adopted :-Proposed by the Chairman and seconded by Mr. McLeod .- That the report and account as presented be adopted. Proposed by Mr. St. Croix and seconded by Mr. Young-That Messrs. A. McLend, C. W. Wrightson, H. A. J. Macray, A. M. Marshall and the senior representative of Messrs, lardine, Matheson and Company Limited be re-elected directors for the current year, you have given us many proofs of the interest you have in us, and we much regret that our Company is not on such a smart footing as to reflect the credit which is due to such a capable Officer as yourself.

Although you will soon be far away from us devoting your time and energy to a more de serving cause, you may rest assured that here in Stanghai, at least in one Unit of the S.V.C. your name and person will ever be cherished as that of a true friend—if we may be permitted to use the expression.

Yours faithfully. ON BEHALF OF " PORTUGUESE" COMPANY, S.V.C."

At the conclusion of the reading of the address Captain Nolasco called on all present to drink to the health and prosperity of Captain and Mrs. Davidson, which was done right heartily, being followed by three rousing cheers and a tiger.

Captain Nolasco, in the course of a short speech, said the Company would miss Captain Davidson at their drills, rifle meetings, social functions, etc. They all regretted his departure as he had always been a good friend to the Company and had taken a keen interest in their welfare from their first formation. H had been very patient with them and what they knew was due entirely to his painstaking effort on their behalf. The speaker then presented the address and smoking set, which bore a suitable inscription in Portuguese, and asked the recipicat, when making use of the smoking se and he was watching the smoke clouds rolling away to the unknown, to let his thoughts float back to the Portuguese Company in Shangha who would always remember him with kind feelings. In a few days be would be far awa from Shanghai on the ocean, bound toward his homeland, but he could rest assured tha he took with him the very best of wishes of the Portuguese Company who owed him so much

Captain Davidson in reply said that he had always taken an interest in the Portuguese Company. When the Company was formed Colonel Watson asked him to take it in hand From the very first he found the member willing, and although they were drilled in an entirely new system to them they showed great willingness to learn, and they persevered in their work, and the result was the in five weeks' time in a "March Past" they were like a brick wall in alignment They were enthusiastic and took an interest in their work, and that was the reason he took an interest in them. They had steadily improved both in their drilling and they were always up to their full strength. Especi ally after the late riot they kept up their enthusiasm and he was glad to see that it did no show any signs of lagging. He might be able to return to Shanghai in five years, and if he did he would be glad to take an interest in them again if they wanted him. He then thank ed the Company for their presentation, which he said would always serve to remind him o

> RESPONSIBILITY FOR INFBRIORITY OF JAPANESE GOODS.

VIEWS OF YOKOHAMA MERCHANTS.

The Yokobama guilds of Japanese merchant have drawn up a memorial with regard to the tuguese Company, S.V.C.," have been assemble complaints of the inferigrity of Japanese goods markets, and have presented it to the Government. As will be seen from their views, which we publish below, they seem to attribute the From the very formation of the Company I deterioration in quality of Japanese goods mainly to the result of what they term the I "Settlement trade."

DEFECTS ON JAPANESE SIDE. (t) In the beginnings of foreign trade the export of most Japanese goods was undertaken by foreign merchants more for the sake of novelty than for the purpose of permanent trade, and the sellers, as a rule, did not concern themselves much about the quality of the goods they supplied.

(2) Many of the goods which are now regarded as important articles for export have jus. either been newly manufactured or modified to suit the taste of foreign markets. but the manufacture of these goods is neither based, on mature experience nor a full understanding of the taste of the purchaser. Moreover, many of these articles are more for the purposes of ornament than for practical use, and this circumstance is also responsible for having caused a general deterioration in goods for export. dreamed of making a fortune at a stroke, and they did not pay much attention to their re- of crops in China, coupled with a revival of putation, as would be the case with those who carried on a fixed trade for many years. (5) The manufacture of most export goods is carried on under most irregular and disconnected conditions. Much trouble and delay not unnaturally arise before an order is executed, and the endeavour to execute the order at a stipulated time frequently leads to the

(1) Foreign buyers, as a rule, desire to obtain goods as cheap as possible because low-priced articles command a larger market than highpriced ones. They are ignorant of industrial conditions in Japan, and do not seem fully cognisant of the fact that a low price necessarily produces inferior quality.

(3) Foreign merchants are, as a rule, destitute of a sufficient knowledge to discriminate nice points in the quality of Japanese goods. For this reason, they invariably prefer lowerpriced articles to the higher-priced even though the latter is better in quality unless it is evident on the surface.

King during the period referred to was such that we have not been able yet to recover from. How ever, ideal good weatherhaving prevailed during l-last summer the country was blessed with unusual abundance of crops at the autumn harvest, and tariff questions in the United States of America baving been settled our trade with that continent was once more made to move forward, and further the various diplomatic negotiations with China were in succession settled. In view of those favourable circumstances and also there being nothing apprehensive as regards the juture of the money market, the Bank of Japan lowered the rate of interest in the month of August, when the market began to feel a little activity, and trade generally likewise showed a tendency towards gradual recovery. But in consequence of the great fall of the price of rice in anticipatien of abundant crops, and 'also the dull state in the raw silk trade, the situation became low and discouraging and all grades of trade suffered further depression in the keenest degree, making the effect of depression felt more than ever. The money market became more and more inactive, interest on loans further declined, and all the native banks were in such a state as to be unable to find proper outlet for their unemployed money.

In short, the general economic conditions of this country in the period under review was that although the depression was "universa alike in cities and districts owing to the enter prises generally having not yet regained the point of prosperity, to the tendencies of the unceasing curtailment of government expenditure, yet in view of the easy money as already mentioned and also of the absence of any pessimis tic circumstances around us, a revival of gener al prosperity may not possibly be very far from Turning to our foreign trade during the lashalf year, we find that the merchandise export ed amounted to ven 266,000,000 and imported to yen 179,000,000, making the total of ven 445,000,000. These figures as compared with those for the corresponding period of the year preceding show a falling off amounting to ven 3,800,000 in imports, but show an increase by yen 20,800,000 in exports, resulting in a net increase of yen 17,000,000 on the whole. Thus, parallel with the increase in the amount of our foreign trade, our banking business was in a favourable state and the result of our last half year's work was comparatively fair. Despite the no small loss having been sustained at our Kobe Branch, the profits' made by our Head Office and other Branches having been ample, it is with satisfaction we mention that, after making good the above loss, we have still been able to leave a net profit amounting to yen 1,801,566.36 yen and to declare the dividend at the usual rate. We have the drafted the appropriation of these profits and now submit the same to your consideration and adoption.

Hongkong Scientist's "Dream."

SBARCHING FOR THE ORIGIN OF TYPHOONS.

MR. PLUMMER SEEKS TO HARNESS THE SUN.

A remarkable: work on, "The origin o typhoons," which we confidently predict will attract the attention of meteorological experts and scientists all over the world, has just been issued from the pen of Mr. John I. Plummer, M.A., Chief Assistant at the Hongkong Observatory. It repais all preconceived ideas regard lng the origin of these tremendous forces of nature which have wrought such havec Hongkong within the past four or five years and seeks to establish a theory, which is intensely interesting even to the lay mind. Whether if will be accepted by the scientific world is another question but the work is certain to establish the reputation of Mr. Plummer as an conginal and profound thinker and one who must be seckoned with in the future.

Probably it will be best to state, in the first instance, the conclusions at which the author has arrived. He gives them as follows: 1st. That the earliest beginnings of typhoons must be sought for on land, and not at sea, 2nd. That the great currents which have their birthplace in the Sahara, the central parts of Asia the plateau of Mexico and perhaps in the interior of northern Australia, must not be neglected in the meteorology of the world because they are aerial, and are not felt at the make a stronger appeal at present surface. They must reach the sea level at some time and place and then produce results comparable with the intensity of the forces to which they owe their existence.

3rd. That one typhoon is never the cause of another, and that if a succession of them is seen to proceed from one limited area at intervals of a few days, as it is well known they are very upt to do, they are caused by separate impulses impressed on a permanent if slowly moving zone which we may, perhaps, call the meteorological equator of the globe.

4th. That a typhnon once formed does not tend to coalesce with another but, on the contrary, rather, repels it, and in the final result the one becomes intensified, as it were, at the expense of the other.

Finally, that once the actual condition of the whole of the world becomes thoroughly known there will be no difficulty in understanding the origin and mode of working of these devastating storms, and, although it sounds more like a dream than the sober anticipation of science, so to turn the superabundant energy of the sun to beneficial account to mankind, that even such unruly disturbances may become more suave and gentle in their operation.

Such are the conclusions reached after twenty years' experience of typhoons in Hongkong. We take it that the reader should not assume from the first conclusion that typhoons do not originate at sea, although that might be considered as Mr. Plummer's contention on a cursory glance at the words. On the contrary, the writer clearly states that, "typhoons generally, perhaps always, originate in the open sca." What he maintains is that the difficulties attending the observation of the beginnings of typhoons at sea are so great as to be almost on land to the same extent at all events.

Dr. Doberck, the former Director of Hongkong Observatory, pursued the usual course, but Mr. Plummer is convinced that in doing so his former chief was wrong and he gives excellent reasons in support of his belief. We will not go into them, or dwell on the highly technical character of the thesis in its early stages. Although there is doubt as to the place of origin,-that is to ray the place where desirable end than by following the example they become perceptible to the trained ob- of the Hongkoog University, which has the server, "We have also been brought to the hearty support of the Hongkoog Government suspicion, almost to the belief, that the place and the co-operation of wealthy merchants. of origin of cyclones is not the open seathat is merely the point at which they become appreciable at the surface of the earth-but over head; that the cause of them, however mysterious and unexplained at present, must be sought in connection with the unequal heating of the land and the sea."

HONGKONG UNIVERSITY.

CONGRATULATIONS FROM SHANGHAL

The laving of the foundation stone of the Hongkong University on Wednesday was an event of great importance, especially to the large number of Chinese whose interests are more or less bound up with the commercial prosperity of Hongkong, writes the Shanghai Times editorially. In the completion of the scheme for the founding of the University generous contributions were made by British firms: but the Chinese also came forward with hearty support. It is to be noted that British merchants of Indian extraction took a prominent part in the inauguration and carrying forward of the plans. It can thus be rightly said that the movement for this University has been mainly Aslatic. Hongkong will prove a desirable location for a University on modern lines, -b which is meant a University in which Greek and Latin scholarship are not foremost. Although situated at one corner of the Chinese Empire it is easily available for students, and there can be but little doubt that when the University is in running order students from all parts of China will be found in its halls. It is a pity that the scheme proposed by Lord William Cecil has not been made a part of the Hongkong Unit versity, and perhaps some method will still be found by which an amalgamation of interests may take place. It can scarcely be expected that a division of forces will result in benefit for either party, and the Hongkong scheme being on broader lines than that of Lord William Cecil is sure to the support of British philanthropists. congratulate Hongkong upon the results already attained, and express the hope that future success may attend the University. The zeal displayed by British merchants in this matter should be emulated by wealthy

Chinese in all the Provinces. We have frequently called attention to the present full in the educational movement in China. There is still much commendable activity, and many schools, both Governmental and private throughout the "Empire, are doing good work; but on the whole there is not the same zealous spirit exhibited at the present time as was found in China a few years ago. This has been due, in large measure, to the difficulty which the Government has found of appropriating large sums for educational purposes out of the present restricted revenue. Without the imposition of a special educational tax it is d flicult to see how the Government can do much more in the immediate future than it is now doing, The co-operation of wealthy merchants in providing money, and of the leading literatt in accepting positions as teachers, is greatly to be desired. It must be recognized that the profession of teaching is not a lucrative one, and that the establishment of good schools calls for a large measure of self-sacrifice, not only from those who contribute funds, but also from those who devote their lives to teaching. The lack of continuity of management has acted a deterring influence in keeping young men from devoting their lifelong energies to school work; but if the co- peration of the people with the Government in the establishment of schools could be secured, permanency of management could also be maintained. It insuperable. But these difficulties do not exist bas been discouraging, in the past, for young men to give a few years of carnest work to a school, only to find themselves dismissed on account of a sudden change of official management. THE CHINESE PLOUR MILL CO., LTD.

ANNUAL MEETING:

The fifteenth annual general meeting of shareholders in the above company was held at Shanghal on 16th inst. There were present -Messrs. A. McLeod (presiding), B. J. Such, Chas. Rayner and Walter Scharff (directors), J. M. Young, A. C. Hunter, O. Ritthausen, Chang Yuen-ching, E. H. Gibson and R. E. Kadooris representing 819shares.

The notice convening the meeting having been read, the Chairman spoke as follows:-Gentiemen :- The printed accounts and report having been in your hands for some time I will, with your permission, take them as read. The accounts have been made up on the same lines as in previous years, and call for little comment on my part. On the Dr. side of the balance-sheet you will observe "sundry creditors" stands at Tis. 217,935.07. This amount represents, chiefly, the overdraft with bnokers, December 31, 1909, and is covered by stocks valued at Tis. 218,216.47 All our stock of flour, bran, etc., have since been disposed of at prices above those at which they were valued when stock-taking, "Bills Payable," Tis. 4.053.76, have since been taken up, and represent cost of gunny bag, etc. The profit and loss account shows a balance in our favour of Tls. 42,647.96, which the directors propose to deal with as specified in the report, viz:-

General managers' participation in Tis. profits as per agreement 3,414.28 Write off buildings..... machinery 9,700.00 Pay dividend at the rate of Tls. 3

Machinery: Our power and milling plants are in excellent working order. The greatest attention is constantly paid to the upkeep of the machinery, and all necessary repairs are immediately attended to, and the cost of such repairs is charged to the working account, The erection of the same plant as the shareholders now own would cost considerably more than the present book value. A number of additions to the machinery, costing Tis: 3.947.25 represent an exhaust arrangement whereby the cleaning department is kept free of fine dust, thus not only reducing the wear and tear of the cleaning machinery, but also minimising the possible danger of fire. It also includes a valuable wheat receiving plant in the godown which enables us to clean all the wheat as soon as it is landed. doubt you will be aware Chinese whea. is very dirty, and wheat stored in such a condition is certainly more liable to turn bad and get heated than wheat cleaned before being stored. From machinery account it is proposed to write off Tis. 9,000 from last year's

With the buildings and property I should like to deal together. After writing off Tis. 3,000,00 from buildings as proposed in the report, the figure representing this item is below Tls. 100,000.00. The property shows a book value of Tls. 38,014.58, but like the buildings, this figure is much below its actual value. If an expert valuation was made on the property and buildings, it would most probably reveal figures. showing that the capital liability of the company is fully covered by the value of these two items alone. As pointed out in the report, the directors have kept on improving the property by acquiring small adjoining lots of land, raising such land with ashes from the boilers sand stone, in which impurities the native wheat is unfortunately so rich, also by filling in old creeks. The total area now owned by the company is about 40 mow and the value of the land, including the bunding and refiners in Japan Proper."-Japan Chronicle. jetty, may be estimated at Tis. 4,000.00 per mow, making the total value approximately Tls. 160,000.00 against the book value of only Tls. 38,014.58. The buildings in our opinion are worth fully 50 per cent more than their book value and if you total up these valuations it will be found that the sum total is tantamount to the capital of the company, all the other assets like machinery, furniture, telephone shares, representing additional security.

These remarks are all I have to say on the balance sheet now before you, but before moving the adoption of the accounts I shall be pleased to answer any question the shareholders may wish to ask me.

SUGAR REFINING IN JAPAN.

EXCESSIVE PROTECTION OF FORMOBA" INDUSTRY.

The Nicki Nicki publishes an Interview with a cortain prominent business man-who-is-interested in the sugar industry regarding its future in Japan Proper and in Formosa. This authority declares that the Government giving too much protection to the sugar Industry in Formosa even at the cost of its decline in Japan Proper and he is inclined to believe that though the industry is in a very prosperous condition in Formosa at present, the excessive protection may ultimately lead to an adverse reaction. The writer proceeds:-

The decline of the refining industry in Japan will not be conducive to the advantage of Formose in the long run, as the falling-off in the demand for crude sugar together with the growing increase of production will result in the loss of the equilibrium be- lowing :-tween demand and supply. In August last the price of Indian oplum was below $1,000 l per chest; in September it had risen to a little $1,200. Thence onwards the market price has stendily risen until at the beginning of this or $600,- just tenfold. month it stood at $2,000 per chest. During the first week of the month the price advanced slowly but steadily. Within the last few days it has gone up by leaps and bounds, averaging about Sigo per diem; and this morning it had reach-

Amongst local, brokers there seems to a consensus of opinion, indeed, that this increase in the price of the drug has come to dividend of $1.50 per share be paid for account stay, for a long time to come at any rate. The reasons which led to the enhancement of prices up till, say, four months ago were not exceptional, because prior to August last year raw opium had reached as that has taken place since that time is held to be due to one cause in particular. Definite figures for last year are difficult to obtain, but it is a matter of knowledge that in supply was supplied by China, the remaining 15 per cent, being foreign. Of this 85 per cent. THE CAMPAIGN AGAINST OPIUM

The following is from the Perak Pioneer of 14th inst :- The February number of 'Britain's Opium Harvest, the chief organ of the Home Anti-Oplum Society, is now before us. The conhigh as $1,300 in the ordinary course of tents of the current number are chiefly devoted market operations; but the abnormal rise to the progress that is being made in the suppression of both the use and cultivation of the drug' throughout all the Chinese provinces. Being the organ of the Society, naturally the various reports of the progress that is being made in the suppression, are written from the most favourable point of view. To judge from the summing up of most of them the success of ral trend. The real reason is stated to be that, the crusade for the extinction of the 'evil would appear to be proceeding merrily apace with the exception of a few discordant notes here and there. Some of the reports, however, are rather conflicting. Whilst we read in one that had been stopped by Imperial decree in less the action of the Government in one province is being attended with complete success, we find; on the contrary, in another, and that in some of the largest of the provinces of the Yangteze, more poppy was grown last season than has ever been the case before So far as can be ascertained no order has been issued forbidding the cultivation in such places Among the introductory notes of the current number, it is stated that of the nine most staunch supporters of the movement in the House of Commons, previous to the General 1907, no less than 85 per cent, of the raw opium | Election, four, succeeded in retaining their sents whilst five were unsuccessful. The descriptions given of the success and the manner in which the 'crusade' is being conducted, as we have already said, are naturally written from a *rosy point of view, still, many of them must be read with caution and accepted cum grano salle. Amongst the latter we would place the following instance quoted, seeing economy and not destruction has always been known as one of the strongest traits o the Chinese national character:—A remarkprice of the commodity that has occurred with- able scene was witnessed on the execution ground at Yunnaniu recently, when no les The question as to whether this enhancement | than 20,000 ounces of prepared opium were in cost is to be maintained is, of course, one publicly destroyed by fire, by order of upon which it is only possible to conjecture in the officials in the campaign for the total the dark. Mr. Hett-I'm not saying that. I'm merely asking that on the face of the circumstances your Lordship ought not to suspend debtor's discharge. KIDNAPPING IN THE COLONY.

, CASE AT THE CRIMINAL SESSIONS.

21st inst. Before Mr. Justice Gompertz, Puisne Judge, at the Criminal Sersions this afternoon, Li Yuen was indicted on charges of kidnapping a twelve-year old Chinese girl with Intent to deprive its lawful guardian of the possession of the child and unlawfully detaining same on the 27th February last. Hon. Mr. F. A. Hazaland. Acting Attorney-General, instructed by Mr. H. L. Dennys, Jr., from the Crown Solicitor's office, prosecuted. The prisoner was undefended and pleaded not guilty.

The following were the jury :- Messrs. A. C. Diss (foreman), C. H. Pintos, O. Wagner, W. A. Rose, H. W. Page, S. Paul and C. H. dos Remedios.

The Attorny-General stated that the prisoner was charged under two counts, that of leading away a twelve-year-old child from her guardian and dataining same. The child was missed at 6 p.m. on the 27th February last. At 7.50 p.m. on same day, that is, about two hours afterwards, it was found on board the s.t. Kwangsi in the postession of the defendant. Defendant's evidence was that the child followed him, while the child's story was that the defendant had actually dragged her away. It was purely a matter for the jury to believe one or other of the stories.

Prisoner stated that the girl followed him of her own accord and that she said she was glad to leave her guardian. The Attorney-General said he wished to temporarily withdraw the case and refer the matter to the Registrar-General, who would make the necessary investigations as to whether defendant's story was correct.

BY H.E. MAJOR-GENERAL BROADWOOD.

The Hongkong Volunteers annual inspection took place on Saturday afternoon at 9 p.m. on the Murray Barracks Parade Ground The men paraded at Headquarters at a p.m. about ago in all, and were marched down to the Parade Ground headed by the Band of the Buffs. There was a large number of spectators to see our citizen soldiers at their general inspection. General Broadwood arrived shortly after 3 o'clock and inspected the men closely. The Volunteers then marched past in a smart manner, the Artillery Companies with Maxim gons The Cadets were also present and put through their drills well."

At the conclusion, H.E. Major-General Broadwood said:-Colonel Chapman, officers and men, H.K.V.O., -I have been very pleased throughout the past training with the work you have done towards making yourselves officient as fighting men. I was particularly pleased at the keenness shown by those who were able to attend the camp in the New Territory, and consider that camp a great advance from the point of view of practical soldiering on any previous camp. I have seen here, I am sorry to say, that the corps is far from being filled up to its establishments. I know that there are plenty of able-bodied men in the Colony who would come forward in an emergency to assist in the defence of the Empire and I know that they think that if a man is a good shot and a good sportsmen he is fit to take his place in the fighting line. I can assure you that this is a fallacy, and that an untrained man in the fighting line, no matter how good a shot he may be, is not only useless" but a danger in modern war. . I don't tell you this on my own 3,-4.10 p.m. TENT PEGGING IN SECTIONS OF authority alone, but also on that of a far greater soldier, Sir John French, who during his stay here was much impressed by the difficulty of the surrounding country, and said that here more than in other parts of the empire an untrained man would be useless in the fighting line. The imperial idea is growing both at Home and in the overseas "colonies: that is people are realizing that the empire can only be kept together by every man making himsel -ready to take part in its defence, and that it cannot depend on the standing army only for its defence. If you can spread this idea in Hongkong, you will have done as much good as by your example in making yourselves fit. After this the Volunteers marched back to Headquarters and were then dismissed,

SAN FRANCISCO'S ORIENTAL NEWSPAPERS.

San Francisco's Oriental newspapers are the wonder of the journalistic world. There are eight of them, all deilles-four Chinese and four Iapanese. Each has its own building, a really metropolitan staff of reporters and writers, and an editor whose sense of news values is as acute and up-to-date as the average American's.

Contrary to general expectation, perhans, the Chinese papers are the largest and best. They are located within two blocks of one another in the rehabilitated Chinese quarter, which is now one of the handsomest and most substantial as well as most capitary sections of the new San Francisco. A modern two-story concrete building is the humblest domicile of the San Francisco Chicese newspapers while a four story brick is the most pretentious. The other two are three stories in beight and also of brick.

The Japanese newspapers are domiciled in three two-story and one single-story buildings, Two are of frame and two of brick. They are scattered over a considerable area, about half a mile apart, and but one is near the Chinese section. This is the Telegraph on Sacramento near Stockton streets. The Soko Shimbun or Inpanese Dally Neus occupies a former dwelling-house and has the smallest circulation of all, its subscription list being about two thousand copies. The New World, housed in a frame building at Geary and Powell streets, bar the only Web Perfecting (flat bed) Press in the city with a capacity of six thousand twelve-page | 6.-5.10 p.m. One and a QUARTER MILE papers per bour, while the Japanese American. bas the best building and most up-to-date equipment, generally of the Japanesedailies.

The Chinese papers, in sharp contrast to their Japanese contemporaries, have each a marked individuality, a strong policy and a definite him aside from money-getting. 'The Tat. Tung Yat Po or Chinese Free Press is probably the most aggressive and forceful in this regard. It is the official organ of the Chinese Free Mason Society, a very powerful organization which has thousands of wealthy members, and to which about one-eighth of the entire Chinėse people belong.

A very interesting Chinese daily is the Sa Gai Yai Po or Chinese World, edited by young, California born Chinese named Robert L. Patt. The World is probably the most thoroughly Americanized of San Francisco's Oriental papers. It has a staff-photographer, a corps of reporters who can write a news-story in English as well as in Chinese, and who cover the police courts, city ball, incoming and outgoing steamers, with remarkable thoroughness. The World publishes daily half-tones of news events and will soon install an engraving plant-a dignity to which no Oriental paper in America has yet lattained. The World is an afternoon paper and, while having no telegraphic service, prints a very complete line of cable news, translated and "boiled down " from the American morning papers. It has correspondents all over the Pacific Coast and a representative at Peking who occasionally wires some news item of importance in addition to his regular mail service. The circulation, though small not exceeding five thousand copies, is almost unlimited geographically. The World goes to a score of different American cities, and has subscribers in Asia, Africa, Europe, Australia and Hawaii,

JAPANESE COVERNMENT'S LIBERALITY.

In the course of the proceedings of the Lower House on the Reserve Fund, which sat at 11 a.m. on Thursday (10th instant), Mr. Shimire, a Secretary in the Foreign Office, replying to questions regarding the disbursement of the fund in charge of the Foreign Office in the 41st fiscal year (1908-9), said that the sum of Y150,000 had been paid out of the second reserve to the two sisters of the late Mr. D. W. Stevens, who, after having been in the Government service from the year 1882, had been cruelly done to death by the hand of an assassin at 8an Francisco on March 24th, 1908;

Mr. Shimidzu further stated that the estimate for telegraph charges had proved insufficient by Y20,000, and it was therefore defrayed out of the second reserve. On May 14th, 1908, a sum of Y1,500,000 was paid, representing half the amount of capital for the Yalu Lumbering Company, which was formed on a joint-stock basis by the Ispanese and Chinese Governments. — Japan Chronicle.

THE BRYBLOPMENT OF MANCHURIA.

AMBITIOUS JAPANESE PROGRAMME.

Mr. Shiranl, Chief of the Administrative Bureau of the Kwaptung Government, outlining Japanese policy for the development of Manchuria. As will be seen from Mr. Shirani's remarks, it is suggested that a Japanese bank be formed for the purpose of advancing. cheap, money, for industrial, undertakings. We wonder if the necessary capital to establish such a bank could be raised in London? Judging from Earl Stanhope's remarks, quoted in Wednesday's issue, there would doubtless be quite a rush of British financiers anxious to invest in such an under

Mr. Shirani is thus quoted:—" Not being so very distant from the time of the Russo-Japanesa War, all the Japanese equipments now in Manthuria are tainted with a military flavour. but there is no colour of necessity for continning such a military state any longer. The Kwantung Government, by disarming Dairen and Port Arthur, and carrying out the evacuation of Japanese soldiery from Manchuria by degrees, is endeavouring to show its sincarity to the world in regard to the intention of exploitating Manchuria in a peaceful manner. As the first step in that direction, the Government intends to inaugurate engineering and chemical schools and other similar institutions for the purpose of developing the natural resources of Manchuria and Kwantung province, and has it further in mind to afford facilities to people in economic enterprises.

"Manchuria and Kwantung province are threetimes the size of Japan, containing from 30,000;-000 to 40,000,000 inhabitants, and as regards the exact area of the fields operated by the people; even the Chinese Government is in ignorance. For instance, along the railway zone, from Dai ren to Changchun, Covering more that 700 miles, is no tract of land but is cultivated with care and skill, and the staple, export big beans through Dairen. Vladivostok and Yinkow has reached the amount of 18,000,000 koku which figures-with the addition of the tota amount of inland consumption,-represen enormous values. The production of other cereals is put at between 3,000 and 4,00 koku, bearing testimony to the wonderfully fertile soil of Manchuria. As to minerals the Fushun, Honkeiko, and Entai coal mines, which are well-known to the public but drops in the bucket compared with the Iron-mines and copper-mines still lying undiscovered. The Government not only, at taches importance to these inestimable natural products, but is anxious to build up some great enterprise on their foundation. The establishment of an engineering and chemical school above referred to is their intended object Salad oll and lubricating oils are manufactured from big beans, and the residue is made into soy and miso, while alcohol is prepared from barley grain and paper from the stems. The manufactures of glass and matches have a bright future before them also.

"The branch of the Spacie Bank has contro of the money-market of Manchuria, but it only a commercial bank, and is not entitled to Average yield per coolie employed " · accommodate industrial enterprises with funds. Such being the case, Japanese merchants secura from usurers loans which are usually obtained at 3 or 4 per cent, per measem and at 40 or 50 per cent, per appum in the case of sums ranking from Y5,000 to Y10,000. Of the Manchurian merchants numbering thousands, only Soo are doing business with their own money. which amounts to Y3,000,000 in all, while others depend on usurers for the operation of their business. The authorities are doing their best to reduce the rate of interest by some means or other. Sluce last year, some members of the Diet have been petitioning the Government to establish a special bank in Manchuria but the latter has, refused, the request on the ground that Manchuria is not advanced in industrial undertakings, for which reason the practice of advancing loans is dangerous. But from the Manchurian point of view, the deficiency of adequate financial organs cannot but be held responsible for the non-development of its enterprises. Some time ago the Hokkaido and Formosa were provided with special banks of their own, and it is to be hoped that the same measure may be taken in Manchuria. The Chinese, on the other hand, are busy trying to obtain control

BANGKOK RICE TRADE.

REGULAR REVIVAL APPARENT.

Under date 11th inst., the Bangkok Daily Mail writes:-A regular revival in trade is becoming more and more evident in Bangkok of late. Shipping business is becoming more active and the local ricemills are busy once more. This proves that a plentiful supply of rice and paddy is pouring in from the country and that the demand for it is brisk.

Local freight rates are going up, and we learn that some steamers left recently for Singapore carrying cargoes of rice at 224 cents per picul which is considered an excellent freight rate in this part of the world. A cargo of rice at this rate to Singapore pays the steamer pwners about Tics 5.400 and upwards according to capacity. The return trips from Singapore generally average fifteen hundred to two thousand dollars. This is fine business and emphasises the fact that an abundant rice-barwast for Siam is one of the best things to which the country can aspire...

At present the fear is entertained that the nousual rain at this season will more or less Injure the rice harvest. In many districts the peddy is piled up in stacks, the farmers, not having time to have it thrashed and gathered in. This is chiefly owing to the slow, primitive methods in which harvesting is carried on in who following results :this country and which frequently expose the paddy cultivators to certain risks, both in time of sowing, as well as in saying their crops. Seeing that rice-growing is, and will continue to be the great source of Slam's wealth, it is of vital importance that it should be encouraged in every way possible. In former years a coyanol paddy could be had in the local market for about Tics. 40, or less, and to-day it is sold at Tics 80, and upwards. This proves better than anything else, the great and growing damand that exists for rice and this demand is increasing in all parts of the world. When rice is abundant money is plentifol and trade is brisk in all its branches. But we see by experience in Siam that in years of a poor rice-barvest, business and all lines of commerce suffer. Keeping this in view, we cannot refrain from suggesting once more that in order to insure blg harvests for blam annually, it will be - necessary to introduce modern labour-saving machinery late the country and to educate the

SAILORS' AND SOLDIERS' HOMB.

MINTH ANNUAL REPORT.

The ninth annual report reads:-Though it may surprise some, the question What do you exist for?" is often asked of those who, like ourselves, are responsible for the working of a Sailors' and Soldiers' Home. Many who do not ask such a question have no clear idea of the work we are doing or of the necessity of such work. Perhaps the best way to answer this question is to write a report of the work of the past year.

We try to meet the needs of men who find themselves situated thus; in short we seek to provide them with an equivalent to of the estate was made during the year which a home. This is done by giving them a place where they can get bealthy refreshment, a bath and a bad, and by creating a social and religi ous centre where all that is pure and good may be encouraged and strengthened. It will be seen from below that considerable success has attended our efforts in this direction. The absence of the Fleet fo to many months during the past year has made a difference to our returns, the income showing a decrease of $3,000 on the previous year. We are therefore glad to say that we have closed the year with a balance in hand. though it is only to the extent of $16.31. During the winter months a series of popular concerts was started. They soon "caught fire and the large concert room was full week after week. The audience was almost entirely com posed of sailors and soldiers and the men of the Naval Dockyard and their wives. Friends all over the Colony have shown great willingness to help in these concerts and we extend our hearty thanks to them.

The thirty-second ordinary annual meeting of the shareholders of the China Sugar Refining Co., Ld., was held at the offices of the general agents, in the foreneon, to-day, for the purpose of receiving the report and statements of accounts for the year ending test December, 1909 The Hon. vening the meeting. The Chairman said :- Gentlemen.-The report and accounts having been in your hands for some days you will doubtless agree to follow the usual course and take them as read. When addressing you at our last annual meeting mentioned that the prospects for the ensuing year appeared to be favourable, and from the accounts which are now presented for your aduption you will note that this forecast has been justified. The result is all the more satisfactory when you take into consideration that at no time of the year was the Bowrington Refinery working, and that the production at East Point was on the whole considerably below the capacity of that establishment You will gather, therefore, that our sales were in volume below the average of some previous years, but this was not due so much to a falling off in demand for refined article, but to the fact that. view of the rising markets everywhere, we deemed it expedient during the second half of the year to husband our stocks of raw sugar. The purchasing of our supplies of raw is, as you are aware, a source of continual anxiety. and in this particular instance we had expected to receive our usual quantity of low grade sugar from the Philippines, but in the matter of price there was a big difference between our idea and those of sellers, which made business prohibitive. Fortunately, however, we are not altogether dependent upon the Philippines for our supplies of this class of sugar which we are now obtaining ciate the Home is afforded by the action of Firom other sources. Turning to the accounts you will notice that we propose to pay a dividend of Sto per share absorbing $200,000, carrying $40,000 to repairs and renewals account and placing $150,000to credit of equalization of dividend fand. The experience of the past has amply demonstrated the expediency in good years of transferring large sums to this fund, and in view of the fact that as time goes on competition becomes more severe I have no doubt you will approve of this policy being continued. The repairs and renewals account instituted in the year 1905 has proved exceedingly advantageous and as we have in view some improvements at East Point which should result in a considerable saving in working expenses I trust you will approve of the proposed application of $40,000 to this fund as also of the bonus to the staff. A few words about the future will, no doubt, be appreciated. We have secured the greater portion of this year's requirements of raw at prices which could not now be repeated The demand for refined is good and sales are showing a satisfactory margin of profit: if this continues the figures laid before you at the nex annual meeting should be satisfactory. There is no farther information which it occurs to me to give, but I shall be pleased to answer any questions which you may desire to ask.

PBRNACULAR PRESS OF CHINA remarkable statements by the "times" " CORRESPONDENT.

Under date January 21st the Times correspondent at Shanghal contributes the following interesting and informing letter ---

"In forecasting China's future progress along the path of reform, it has been the custom of competent observers, and quite justly so, to place the native Press in the front rank of repoyating agents. There is no doubt that the protection afforded to the Press in the Foreign Settlements of Shanghal has been a very considerable factor in the development of progressive public opinion for the past 20 years. "No compatent observer of the march of events can have failed to realise, especially at Peking, the marked changes which have impressed themselves upon the Government of the country as the result of the expression and pressure of that opinion. However, tainted at times by the tendencies of the babu, however uneducated and crude, the journalists of China have done good work for their countrymen as educators of the public in many new directions, and it is, therefore, a matter of no small concern to the state that the Press should continue of liberty, and that its utterances should be those of enlightened and patriotic men.

PRESS CAPTURED BY OFFICIALDOM. "A remarkable change has come over the Chinese vernacular Press during the past year. Concisely stated, the change which has overtaken the native Press. is that it has passed under the control of the Chinese official. At the present moment there is hardly a newspaper worthy of the name in China which is not owned or subsidised by the Mandarins, and the result is that the outspoken criticism of two years ago is generally replaced by a spirit of comfortable acquirescence in the established order of things. This change, slowly and secretly brought about by methods which testify to a considerable amount of intelligent organisation in the official class, would not have been so readily possible were it not for the arbitrary postal and registration regulations introduced I under the authority of the Central Government: It is significant of the spirit in which the Imperial Maritime Customs Administration now I works under the Shui Wu Chu that these postal and Press regulations have come into effect without attracting protest or notice so far as the public is aware. It is clear that; where official registration of a newspaper is required before postal facilities are given the existence of any journal in Ohinese hands can be made to depend on its attitude towards the officials: and even where, a nominal foreign ownership is introduced, for the purpose of proitecting a newspaper from injustice of oppression, experience has shown that the Chinese editors and staff can be, and are, exposed to sprious difficulties and dangers. In these circumstances, it is not surprising to find that newspapers which formerly stood for criticism independent of the official class, and which were inspired by a sincere conviction of their country's needs, have now passed into the control of officials. In Shanghai, for Justance, a list of the owners of the leading newspapers, include the Shanghai Taotal, the Governor of Manchuria, the Viceroys of Chihli and Klangsu, and a certain high official interested in the sale of anti-opium pills: The Shanghai. Taotai, in his own espacity and as representing the Viceroy of Nanking, is interested in four newspapers. It is a significant fact in connection with this form of official journalism that these newspapers continue to be registered In the names of foreigners for purposes of protection, a state of affairs which would appear to suggest the same kind of precaution that high Chinese officials take when they re-

THE JAPANESE AND THE "MIN HEU PAO." "Some idea of the nature of the change which has taken place and of its effect on the development of public opinion may be obtained from the recent case of the Min Hsu Pao, a case which has attained notoriety throughout the country, and is still attracting attention in Peking. The Miss Heu Pao was the last surviving newspaper 470,841.36 I of the independent school published in the Shanghal Settlements, It had been refused registration and post office facilities by the Shanghai Taotai, but continued nevertheless to enjoy a considerable reputation and to exercise no little influence locally. Its editorial staff were of the "Young China" class, and their criticisms of the Government's policy in . anchuris had, for some time been paremitting and scathing. When, therefore, the Japanese Consular authorities at Shanghal drew the attention of the Taotai to the fact that this paper was publishing articles hostile to Japanese Interests, it was not surprising to those who were in the secret of the Chinese official Press organisation, to find him readily assent-......S4.330.500.51 ing to the suppression of the Min Hou Pao with 445,305.65 a view to the maintenance of harmonious relations between China and Japan, The news-$4,775,715.16 paper was made to suffer, not on account of its expression of political opinions, but because By Agency commissions 101,684.26 1 of its independent attitude in Chinese affairs. and because of its frequent and plainspoken 436.446.37 attacks upon Chinase officials.
